The agricultural development of the United States has been tremendous of more than was ever before produced.

There was quite an exciting time in Congress Monday. Mr. Potter, of Pa., introduced a resolution to investigate Republican frauds in Florida. The Republicans then wanted to amend the recolution and investigate frauds in Mississippi. To this the Democrats objected, and there was quite an exciting debate. But the Democrats refused to have their frauds in Mississippi invesrigated. The Republicans had agreed to vote for the resolution if they would investigate both Mississippi and Fiori-
